Associate of Arts degrees

Interdisciplinary Studies: Theater/Film

The Best of Both Worlds. You will:

- receive generous financial support
- get non-stop film production and stage experience
- write, act, direct, shoot, and edit
- have small, student-centered classes
- be creative and develop your talents every day of the year

"You can learn pretty much all the basics of filmmaking here. And you don't have to have any prior experience. You can start from zero." - Juji Yanagizono

International student Joji Yanagizono (class of 2014) worked on 12 student films. He also shot video for the Wyoming PBS station located on the CWC campus. His film Winter to Spring, which he wrote and directed, won the Audience Award at the 2013 CWC Student Film Festival.

Experience Theater/Film

In 2013-2014

- The film department produced more than 35 student films.
- The theater department cast 196 roles and filled 106 technical/support positions.
- 16 students directed one or more short theater pieces.
- 6 students had their original plays produced.
